

ADR

Tip of the Month

Acetaminophen – Overdose with therapeutic use?

- Many pharmaceutical products contain acetaminophen.
- Severe hepatotoxicity related to overdose in a therapeutic setting can occur.
- Physicians should recommend to parents and/or patients to avoid:
 - ◆ giving or taking concurrent medications as they may contain acetaminophen.
 - ◆ exceeding the maximum daily dose.
 - ◆ using more than a few days without consulting a health care professional.

Please report all suspected adverse drug reactions (ADRs)