CANADIAN PAEDIATRIC SURVEILLANCE PROGRAM

ADR
Tip of the Month

Safety review of the HPV vaccine Gardasil

After reviewing national and international information regarding the safety of the HPV vaccine Gardasil, Health Canada informed Canadians that the benefits of using this vaccine continue to outweigh the risks.

A review of the safety of Gardasil was triggered by media reports of autoimmune and cardiovascular diseases following vaccination. The safety review concluded that there is no evidence of an increased risk of autoimmune or cardiovascular diseases.

For more information:

http://healthycanadians.gc.ca/recall-alert-rappel-avis/hc-sc/2015/56240a-eng.php

Please report all suspected adverse drug reactions (ADRs).

03/2016